Message from the Editorial Desk

The year 2026 began with celebration, learning, and new milestones for ASWB.

Our Annual Sports Day and Annual Picnic brought students, families, and staff together in play, teamwork, and joy — moments that build confidence beyond the classroom.

We observed Netaji Jayanti, Republic Day, International Mother Language Day and Saraswati Puja with student-led participation, blending cultural pride with self-advocacy and community spirit.

Our Outreach and awareness programs reached some mainstream schools, fostering empathy and understanding through direct conversations with students and teachers.

January marked a proud moment at the International Book Fair 2026, with the release of a new book on autism by our Founder Director, Ms. Indrani Basu adding a vital perspective to the global dialogue.

Our young artists of the Dikshan unit shone at the Art Mela organised by Apeejay School, where their creativity and expression found a wider audience. Beautiful artwork by students and trainees of ASWB were used in the PrintStudio@ASWB products. The Baking Unit made crunchy cookies, cupcakes and birthday cakes.

Three months of sports, festivals, learning, and art — each step forward a reminder that inclusion grows when we celebrate together.
